ANGELICA:

"Oh, David, that's too much food!"

Dialog

DAVID:

"But Mom told me to feed my fish."

Action

As Angelica and Sarah walk into the house, we see DAVID, a small boy of about five, standing on a chair next to a fish tank. As we watch, he dumps an entire container of fish food into the tank and Angelica rushes up, too late to stop him.

ANGELICA:

"It's really good that you're trying to be a responsible pet owner, but you just put in enough food to feed a whole school of fish for a month."

DAVID:

"Well, I don't want them to be hungry."

DAVID'S MOM (O.S.):

David! Time for supper. Your favorite...spaghetti and meatballs.

Action

As soon as the shot is established, the animation segues from a combination of live-action with cartoon to a full-screen cartoon.

Action

David's eyes get big with delight and he licks his chops in anticipation. There's a pause as he sits waiting for his meal then suddenly we hear from off-screen a loud: BEEP! BEEP! BEEP! BEEP! The same kind of noise we hear when heavy construction equipment is backing up.

DAVID (from deep inside the spaghetti pile):
"Help! I can't breathe! I'm smothering in food!"

Action

And sure enough, from out of the right corner of the picture, we see a DUMP TRUCK slowly backing into the frame, heavily laden with spaghetti and meatballs. As David watches in consternation, the entire load is dumped upon his head, completely burying him in food.

DAVID: Oh, now I see. When you give a fish too much food at once, it can smother him, just like all this spaghetti and meatballs almost smothered me.

Action

With some effort, David clammers to the top of the mountain of spaghetti and meatballs and pokes his head out. He scratches his head as he begins to understand what Angelica was talking about.

Just a pinch is enough. Here, I'll show you.

DAVID:
Thanks, Angelica! You're a real Pet Pal!

Action

Dialog

ANGELICA:
If you want to be a Pet Pal, feed your pet
the right way. Give your pet the right amount of nutritious food at the same time every day.

Action

Angelica turns to the camera.

Dialog

ANGELICA:
Be sure to ask your Mom or Dad if you have any questions, or visit our website at www.Pet-Pals.com for more information.
Remember, our pets depend upon us for their care, so be a Pet Pal and do your part to make your pet feel happy, healthy, and loved.
